BATTING ORDER. New York Daniels, rf. Wolter, cf. Hartsell, 3b. Cree, If. Chase, Ib. McKechnie, 2b.

19.-Ray Keating had a chance to win another bundred-dollar present to-day when Frank Chance pitched Mm against Walter Johnson in the third game of the series against Washington.

For a change Hal Chase was sent to first base in the absence of Frank Chance and McKechnie, the recently bought infielder, played second. It was an ideal day for baseball and more than fifteen thousand fans were out to help the Highlanders in getting a start. On account of Charlie Sterrett being novice at first base and McKechnie. the recently arrived infielder who was formerly with the Pittsburgh club and later of Boston, being a good infielder, Chance decided to move Chase to first base and keep him there until he was ible to get into the game himself. This move increases the batting effi-dency as well as the fielding in the present crippled condition of the team Chince says his leg will be all right by Monday or Tuesday and that he will again return to first base and put Chase back at second.

FIRST INNING-The Senators start

FREE SEASON PASSES.

CHERIAGO. April 18.—Every member of the Illinois Legislature was sent to-day a season pass to the games of the Chicago National baseball club here. A bill is now pending in the Illinois Senate providing that the State may take action to close a ball park or other amusement enterprise at which there is not a seat for every ticket sold. The measure was introduced by Senator Beall, who claimed last Sunday that a coupon he held for a seat at the Chicago National Learne ball park was not honored. The bill has passed two readings in the Senate, and it was said to-day had a very good chance of passing a third.
